

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

INTERN POSITIONS

St John's College is seeking suitable candidates studying a PGCE part-time to be interns at the school in 2020:

- Candidates must hold an undergraduate degree at the time of commencing the internship.
- Candidates must wish to become teachers in the FET phase.
- Candidates must provide proof of application to a recognised institution to study for a PGCE in 2020.
- Candidates will be expected to participate in a rigorous interview process conducted at St John's College to ascertain their suitability.
- Candidates must be prepared to become involved in extramural activities in both the sporting and cultural spheres of the school.
- Interns will receive financial assistance with tuition fees as well as a monthly stipend
- St John's College will support and mentor the interns involved in the programme, ensuring that the interns fulfil the requirements of the PGCE course, while also discharging their teaching and extramural duties to the school.
- St John's College is under no obligation to provide employment to any of the interns upon the completion of their PGCE nor to find a placement for them at any other school.
- St John's College undertakes to give priority to the selection of graduates from previously disadvantaged communities.
- Any offer of an internship will be subject to admission of the intern to a recognised institution to study for a PGCE in 2020.
- Please note: St John's College does not offer any commercial subjects at NSC level.

Interested students should submit the following:

A CV, letter of application, academic transcript and proof of application to study a PGCE to internships@stjohnscollege.co.za by Monday 10 June.

The school reserves the right not to proceed with the filling of the post. The appointment of candidates is at the sole discretion of St John's College, taking into account factors such as the St John's College Employment Equity Policy. An application will not in itself entitle the applicant to an interview or appointment and failure to meet the minimum requirements of the advertised post will result in applicants automatically disqualifying themselves from consideration. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted. If you have not heard from St John's College within two weeks of the closing date, please assume that you have been unsuccessful in your application.
