

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

Senior French Teacher/ Head of Subject
January 2020

St John's College is a world-class Christian, African school situated on a magnificent campus in Houghton, Johannesburg, offering quality education from Pre-Primary to Post-Matric. The school has an outstanding academic record, entering candidates for the examinations of the IEB and the Cambridge A Levels.

We seek to appoint a senior French teacher from January 2020. Responsibilities include heading up French at St John's College from Grade 8 to 10 level as well as at post-matric level. In addition, the teacher appointed will be expected to involve themselves in co-curricular and pastoral duties within the school. Members of staff are expected to support the Christian ethos of the school.

The successful candidate will have the ability to deliver quality teaching that drives achievement and inspires a love of learning. You will be able to demonstrate experience of achieving positive outcomes for students, as well as being passionate about making a difference to the lives of young people. As a committed team player, you will have excellent organisational skills and the natural ability to motivate both students and peers.
