

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE

MIC College Basketball

January 2022

St John's College is a world-class Christian, African school situated on an historic campus in Houghton, offering a quality education from Nursery School to Sixth Form. The school has an outstanding academic record and an excellent reputation in sport, music, drama, art and debating.

We seek to appoint a dynamic and experienced professionally qualified MIC of College Basketball. The flexibility to get the best out of students with a broad range of abilities is essential and a willingness to be involved in the extended Basketball programme across the whole school, as well as other sports, and teach physical education at the College is a must.

Job responsibilities

- Communicate and collaborate regularly with Basketball Head Coach and Director of Sport.
- Manage all basketball planning, organising and related duties for all fixtures.
- Guide and assist the Head Coach with coach appointments and related administration.
- Coach a College team.
- Operational planning and budgeting.
- Managing all pre-season training, home fixtures and attending tours and festivals.
- Responsible for the running of the annual St John's College Basketball National tournament.
- Assist with the supervision of players off and on the field.
- Seasonal plan i.e. goals, ethos, expectations and administrative requirements, etc.
- Annual report to the Director of Sport.
- Teach Physical Education or any other academic subject in the College.
- Have an appreciation of the traditions and Anglican ethos of the school

Requirements:

- Relevant tertiary qualification (3 year degree or Diploma)
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- 5 years basketball management and administration experience
- Proof of SACE registration

The successful candidate should have:

- A strong basketball background in playing, coaching and management.
- An interest and commitment to developing the whole child athlete.
- The ability to work positively with fellow coaching staff, parents and relevant stakeholders.
- The ability to develop new ideas and work cooperatively to sustain them.
- The ability to coach the first team, which would be advantageous.
